

STATE

COUNTY

TOWN OR VICINITY

Delaware

New Castle

Glasgow
U.S. ROUTE 401p
10

INDEX NUMBER - 4

MONUMENT

DEL. 2. GLASG. 1-

Pencader Presbyterian Church

REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE

3

H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.

Del-58

History: Built in 1852; Present owners, Elders Pencader Presbyterian Church.PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHSPUBLISHED
DRAWINGSDescription: Brick, frame steeple, wooden cornices. Two stories with steeple. PITCH ROOF, PEDIMENTED GABLES, BRICK PILASTERSReferences: J. Thomas Scharf, "History of Delaware", p 955.EDW. W. COOCH - ARTICLES FOR WILMINGTON HISTORICAL SOC.
WM. T. SKINNER - HISTORY OF PENCADER CHURCH

See EAA

Additional Notes: The inadequate chimney suggests discomfort during extended winter services and the anthemium ornament on the corners of the steeple tower are more symbolic than effective.

PENCADER MEANS "HIGH SEAT". THIS CHURCH WAS CHIEF CHAIR OF PRESB. CHURCHES IN EARLY TIMES

Guy K. Browning,
March 18, 1937.

Wilmington, Delaware.